MEMBERSHIP Descriptions: (See AQHA and RMQHA rules for official definitions).

YOUTH: Individuals 18 years & under are eligible for RMQHYA approved shows and year-end awards only with the horse owned by Youth or immediate family.

YOUTH/OPEN: Individuals 18 years & under are eligible for RMQHYA approved shows and year-end awards, as well as Open division. The youth may show and accumulate points for a horse owned by immediate family or a non-family member provided the owner is also a full RMQHA member.

AMATEUR: Individuals that own their own horse (or the immediate family owns) and have never received remuneration for services consisting of training, instructing, riding, showing, etc for at least five years prior to application are eligible for approved shows and year-end awards.

NOVICE: Exhibitors can not have earned 25 or more halter or performance points in any AQHA Open, Youth or Amateur Divisions skill set or combination thereof, or more than 25 Novice Points combination or skill set thereof. See AQHA Handbook for complete rules.

OPEN: Membership in open division entitles the person and the horse entered to participate in approved shows and races and accumulate individual points towards year-end awards. Both the rider and the horse owner must hold memberships with the RMQHA.

OPEN CORPORATE, PARTNERSHIP, RANCH: Include syndicates, and other legal entities that own, show, or race a horse which becomes eligible to participate in approved shows &/or races and accumulate points for year end awards.

FAMILY: A membership in the names of a family who desires to be involved in Rocky Mountain Quarter Horse Assn. for recreational riding.
